Having served for more than nine years, David Salter and Antonios Djakouris' independence was considered and reviewed by the Board during the year under review. In doing so, the Board considered and assessed the presence or absence of any interest, position, association or relationship which could potentially influence or cause bias in their decision-making process and concluded that it was satisfied that there were no such factors present that impaired their independence. Both David Salter and Antonios Djakouris continued to bring an independent and objective view and unfettered judgement distinct from that of shareholders and management and continue to be classified as independent non-executive directors.

The Board recommends to shareholders the re-election of the retiring directors as set out in ordinary resolutions numbers 3.1, 3.2 and 3.3.
